

Are You Nervous?

What makes you nervous? It is the weakness of your womanly constitution, which cannot stand the strain of the hard work you do. As a result, you break down, and ruin your entire nervous system. Don't keep this up! Take Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is made from purely vegetable ingredients. It acts gently on the womanly organs, and helps them to do their proper work. It relieves pain and restores health, in a natural manner, by going to the source of the trouble and building up the bodily strength.

TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Grace Fortner, of Man, W. Va., took Cardui. This is what she says about it: "I was so weak and nervous, I could not bear to have anyone near me. I had fainting spells, and I lost flesh every day. The first dose of Cardui helped me. Now, I am entirely cured of the fainting spells, and I cannot say enough for Cardui, for I know it saved my life." It is the best tonic for women. Do you suffer from any of the pains peculiar to women? Take Cardui. It will help you. Ask your druggist.

Tortured for Fifteen Years.

by a cure-defying trouble that baffled doctor, and resisted all remedies he tried, John W. Modders, of Moddersville, Mich., seemed doomed. He had to sell his farm and give up work. His neighbors said, "he can't live much longer." "Whatever I ate distressed me," he wrote, "till I tried Electric Bitters, which worked such wonders for me that I can now eat things I could not take for years. It's surely a grand remedy for stomach trouble." Just as good for the liver and kidneys. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c at Oberdorfer's.

WASH THAT ITCH AWAY

It is said that there are certain springs in Europe that give relief and cure to Eczema and other skin diseases. If you knew that by washing in these waters you could be relieved from that awful itch, wouldn't you make every effort to take a trip to Europe at once? Would you not be willing to spend your last cent to find the cure?

But you need not leave home for these distant springs. Relief is right here in your own home town!

A simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol and other ingredients as compounded only in D. D. D. Prescription will bring instant relief to that terrible burning itch, and leave the skin as smooth and healthy as that of a child.

If you have not already tried it, get at least a 25-cent bottle today. We assure you of instant relief.

SOCRATES ON PHILOSOPHY.

He Shows That a Witticism May Do Real Good.

Socrates—Glaucou, what would you say philosophy is?

Glaucou—I should say that, broadly speaking, it is putting two and two together.

Socrates—That is, to some purpose?

Glaucou—Of course.

Socrates—Therefore to say that nobody is very enthusiastic about our great victory over the Cunningham coal claims because it is not the time of year when anybody cares whether we defend our coal pile or not would not be philosophy?

Glaucou—No; that would be a sort of witticism.

Socrates—Which is unworthy of a philosopher?

Glaucou—Yes.

Socrates—That is, it could serve no other purpose than probably to make somebody laugh?

Glaucou—Exactly.

Socrates—It would not be doing any good?

Glaucou—No.

Socrates—That is to say, it would not do the person who laughed any good?

Glaucou—Well, yes. Laughing, I dare say, does any one good.

Socrates—Therefore we have to consider whether by doing good we mean the individual or society generally?

Glaucou—Yes.

Socrates—Which do we mean?

Glaucou—You are splitting hairs a little too fine for me, Socrates.

Socrates—Nonsense. If one did an individual good without doing society harm would that be doing good?

Glaucou—Yes.

Socrates—Therefore to make some one laugh might very easily be doing good?

Glaucou—Certainly.

Socrates—And to say that this is not the season when any one cares whether we defend our coal pile or not probably would make some one laugh?

Glaucou—It might.

Socrates—And thus do him considerable good?

Glaucou—You never can tell.

Socrates—Which would give it a purpose?

Glaucou—True.

Socrates—And make it philosophy?

Glaucou—By Jove, Socrates, you have me nicely!

Socrates—Very well. Now let us all go down and see who can hold his head under water the longest.—Clark McAdams in St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Justification.

"I may have lost my golf ball," thought the old man as he crept on all fours round the bush into which it had rolled, "but I will not lose my temper."

So he continued to grovel and grope and to wear a persuasive, patient smile. His knees bagged, his back ached horribly, and the bush bestowed upon his hands a generous quantity of thorns. But he refused to discard his smile and kept on repeating: "No; I will not lose my temper—I will not!"

Suddenly the elusive ball caught his eye. Flopping flat, he stretched out his hand toward it, grasped it among its nest of thorns and gingerly withdrew it.

"Hoity toity!" exclaimed an old lady's voice behind him. "You ought to be ashamed, birdnesting at your time of life!" And then he did lose his temper.—Answers.

Mere Matter of Speed.

The Reading railway's lawyer was cross examining a negro woman who had sworn that she saw a train hit a milk wagon, whose bandaged driver had just testified. No, she had not heard the engine blow any whistle whatsoever.

"How near were you to the train?" the lawyer asked her sharply.

She didn't know exactly. It might have been so far and it might have been a little farther.

"But how far?" the lawyer persisted. "A mile, or a square, or what? How long would it have taken you to walk the distance?"

"Sub," the witness replied haughtily. "dat would depend entirely on my speed."—Clermont Courier.

Quarreled About Love.

He—So the engagement is off and Maud and Jack don't speak to each other. What caused the quarrel?

She—'Twas the silliest thing. They were talking about their being a case of love at first sight and then got into a fierce dispute as to which had seen the other first.—Boston Transcript.

When pilgrim fathers found a place upon a stern and rock bound coast They founded an important race. A much admired and honored host. But could they come again today. Upon that rock bound coast to dwell They'd have to move; they couldn't pay The price of board at a hotel. —Washington Star.

FREE SAMPLE OF LAXATIVE CURED HIS CONSTIPATION

When a person has become discouraged through years of failure to find a cure, and finally, perhaps, gives up trying, it is small wonder that he becomes skeptical. And yet, to all who have constipation, we would say, "Try just one thing more."

We wish you would try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a laxative tonic that has been used for a generation. Thousands are using it; surely some of your friends among the number. You can buy it of any druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, but better still, send your name and address to Dr. Caldwell for a free sample bottle. He will send you enough to convince you of its merits, and then if you like it you can buy it of your druggist. Mr. J. J. Petty of Unionville, Mo., Mr. George W. Zimmerman of Harrisburg, Pa., and many others of both sexes and in all parts of the country first used a sample bottle and now have it regularly in the house.

You will learn to do away with salts, waters and cathartics for these are but temporary reliefs while Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is guaranteed to cure permanently. It will train your stomach and bowel muscles so that they will do their work again naturally without outside aid. Cast aside your skepticism and try Syrup Pepsin.
